For over 120 years Methodist Chapel Aid Ltd has been holding people's savings and paying interest on them. Throughout this period, the financial position of the Company has always been strong and our ethical standards in all our activities have always been high which gives assurance to all our savers.

We are a small friendly team – however you decide to contact us you can be assured of personal attention at all times.

Within the Child Trust Fund scheme we offer savings accounts which are

- open to everyone,
- simple and easy to understand, with
- a competitive rate of interest*
- a friendly and efficient service which provides
- an immediate response whenever you contact us.

* 1.75% AER

(Annual Equivalent Rate) per annum variable, tax-free, with effect from 15 March 2011.

You can use your Child Trust Fund voucher issued by HM Revenue & Customs to open an account. You can also add to the account any time you like. We will accept any amount that you may wish to subscribe up to the limit permitted by HM Revenue & Customs each year. No amount is too small!
